Win CISSP Book Sets by Shon Harris!!

Books, books and more books. It seems like us security professionals have 1 of two problems... We can never get enough time to read all of the great books out there or our budgets don't allow us to buy all the titles we want. But what happens when you need certain tomes to start or advance your career? Now I won't pretend to know how to manipulate space-time, but I can get all EH-Netters deals on the books they need.

This is where McGraw-Hill Professional comes in. As they put it, "Take the shortest path to get certified in CISSP, CISA, or CompTIA Security+. Get 30% off on these books from McGraw-Hill, exclusively for The Ethical Hacker Network." Not only have they offered a deal to all readers of EH-Net, but they are also giving away 2 CISSP books for each of 5 EH-Net members. And not just any CISSP books, but...

1. CISSP All-in-One Exam Guide, 5th Edition ($79.99), the new edition of the #1 CISSP book! Written by Shon Harris, the #1 name in IT security certification and training. This exam guide offers complete coverage of all the material on the latest release of the CISSP exam.

2. CISSP Practice Exam From Shon Harris ($39.99). This book provides hundreds of realistic CISSP practice exam questions.

For information on these and many other security titles, please visit the landing page created by McGraw-Hill specifically for EH-Net. On a side note, many thanks to McGraw-Hill for stepping in when the scheduled sponsor had to back out last minute. Now get out there and start participating in the EH-Net Community Forums!
