

August 2010 Free Giveaway Sponsor - CareerAcademy.com

Win Cisco® Authorized Video Training Library = $1995!!

We often talk about the foundation one needs to become a security professional and perhaps eventually an ethical hacker. Most who have ventured into this or an associated field have come from one of a few areas: systems admin, programming or networking. So to ensure that you have the networking portion covered, we offer up this month's prize of video training for Cisco Certifications from long-time training provider, CareerAcademy.com. Of course be sure to check out their security video training titles as well including CEH, CISSP, Security+ et al.

To the 2 deserving members this month goes CareerAcademy.com's latest Cisco Authorized Video Training Library. Each of the 2 lucky winners get 3 months of unlimited online access to all of the following Cisco® training programs (list below). Good luck as the competition gets stiffer each and every month.
